XRP/EUR Volume Incentive Program

Overview:

This Volume Incentive Agreement (the "Agreement") is made as of January 11, 2017 (the "Effective Date") by and between Ripple Markets Inc. ("Ripple"), a California corporation doing business at 300 Montgomery Street, 12th Floor, San Francisco, CA 94129, and Bitstamp Ltd. ("Bitstamp"), a corporation, doing business at 5 New London Square, London EC4A 3TW in the United Kingdom. In this Agreement Ripple and Bitstamp may be referred to individually as "Party" and together as "Parties."

Purpose:

The Parties are entering into this Agreement in an effort to increase the liquidity of XRP, a asset native to the Ripple Consensus Ledger ("RCL"), through the application of certain XRP transaction volume incentives. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Bitstamp agrees to engage in efforts to promote the liquidity of XRP on its exchange platform by implementing an incentive program applicable to a selection of its qualified registered members of Bitstamp's services. In return for Bitstamp's efforts intended to increase XRP liquidity, Ripple agrees to reserve certain and defined incentives, as described in this Agreement, and will compensate Bitstamp in XRP or US Dollars. Lock Up Periods are referenced in the below terms.

Duties of Bitstamp:

Bitstamp has implemented systems and procedures to meet anti-money laundering, sanctions and other regulations. These systems and procedures include risk-based customer due diligence such as identification, verification and "know your customer" procedures and enhanced due diligence for those customers presenting higher risk, such as Politically Exposed Persons. Bitstamp also maintains a sanctions policy which prohibits it from transacting with individuals, companies and countries on proscribed sanctions lists, including the UK Treasury and the US Office of Foreign Assets Control. Bitstamp will continue to maintain these policies and procedures to ensure that its services comport with applicable law, including, but not limited to, those discussed above. The Parties agree that Bitstamp will adhere to these requirements for the duration of the Parties' Agreement.

For market transparency and to engage Bitstamp's registered members who meet Bitstamp's user requirements ("Participants"), Bitstamp will announce the terms of the Volume Incentive Program (the "Program") on or before January 10, 2017. Bitstamp will publish the material terms of the Program in an effort to notify and encourage participation, and to inform the market of these Program incentives.

Bitstamp will enroll Participants in the Program between January 10, 2017 and January 17, 2017.

Enrolled Bitstamp Participants trading XRP/EUR for the period of January 17, 2017 at 12:00 am EST to January 31, 2017 at 11:59 pm EST, will be ranked, highest to lowest, based on dollar notional trading volume in XRP/EUR, excluding any and all self-matching volume ("Ranking").

From the Ranking, Bitstamp will select the top three (3) Participants as eligible for the Program. Participants in the Program will receive a monthly rebate of [REDACTED] on a maximum [REDACTED] market share of monthly notional trade volume in XRP/EUR. Self-matching volume will be excluded. The monthly rebate will not exceed [REDACTED] per participant. The Program will be live for period of February 1, 2017 at 12:00 am EST to March 31, 2017 at 11:59 pm EST.

Bitstamp agrees to make any and all necessary changes to its website and user agreements to further facilitate participation in the Program.

Incentives and Payment:

Ripple agrees to reserve an incentive pool with the maximum [REDACTED] or equivalent amount in XRP based on the previous trading day's XRP/USD (volume weighted average price) on Bitstamp, on February 1, 2017 and March 1, 2017. By no later than the first Monday of the following month (Mar 2017, Apr 2017) that the Program is live (Feb 2017, March 2017) Bitstamp will inform Ripple of the total calculated incentive payout. The payout will be deducted from the incentive pool and paid to Bitstamp by no later than the third Monday of the applicable month. Ripple reserves the right to deduct payment from the incentive pool in either USD or XRP. If deducted in XRP, the conversion from USD to XRP will be based upon the previous trading day's XRP/USD VWAP (volume weighted average price) on Bitstamp's exchange.

Desired Outcome of the Volume Incentive Program

The Parties anticipate that the end result of the Program will be a liquid and robust XRP/EUR market on Bitstamp's exchange. If the Program is successful, the Parties may extend the Program through an additional agreement.

XRP/EUR Fee Rebate Program

Overview:

This Fee Rebate Agreement (the "Agreement") is made as of January 11, 2017 (the "Effective Date") by and between Ripple Markets Inc. ("Ripple"), a California corporation doing business at 300 Montgomery Street, 12th Floor, San Francisco, CA 94129, and Bitstamp Ltd. ("Bitstamp"), a corporation, doing business at 5 New London Square, London EC4A 3TW in the United Kingdom. In this Agreement Ripple and Bitstamp may be referred to individually as "Party" and together as "Parties."

Purpose:

The Parties are entering into this Agreement in an effort to increase the liquidity of XRP, an asset native to the Ripple Consensus Ledger ("RCL"), through the application of certain XRP transaction volume incentive rebates. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Bitstamp agrees to engage in efforts to promote the liquidity of XRP on its exchange platform by implementing an incentive rebate program for its qualified registered members of Bitstamp's services. In return for Bitstamp's efforts intended to increase XRP liquidity, Ripple agrees to fund certain rebates, as described in this Agreement, and will compensate Bitstamp in US Dollars.

Duties of Bitstamp:

Bitstamp has implemented systems and procedures to meet anti-money laundering, sanctions and other regulations. These systems and procedures include risk-based customer due diligence such as identification, verification and "know your customer" procedures and enhanced due diligence for those customers presenting higher risk, such as Politically Exposed Persons. Bitstamp also maintains a sanctions policy which prohibits it from transacting with individuals, companies and countries on proscribed sanctions lists, including the UK Treasury and the US Office of Foreign Assets Control. Bitstamp will continue to maintain these policies and procedures to ensure that its services comport with applicable law, including, but not limited to, those discussed above. The Parties agree that Bitstamp will adhere to these requirements for the duration of the Parties' Agreement.

For market transparency and to engage Bitstamp's registered members who meet Bitstamp's user requirements ("Participants"), Bitstamp will announce the Fee Rebate Program (the "Program") on or before January 10, 2017 in an effort to notify and encourage participation, and to inform the market of the Program.

Bitstamp will apply applicable fee rebates to Participants in the Program between January 17, 2017 through April 30, 2017 (the "Program Duration"). For clarity and to provide an example, for the Pool reserved February 1 for the Program live in February, Bitstamp will inform Ripple of the February total calculated rebate by March 6 (the first Monday), and Ripple will pay Bitstamp (from the applicable Pool) no later than March 20 (the third Monday).

The Parties agree that Bitstamp will apply the Pool to Participants as a percentage rebate of Bitstamp fees, with the percentage of rebate to decline over Program Duration. The agreed percentage of rebate and the maximum Pool for each month of the Program will be as follows:

Date	Percentage of Rebate	Maximum Rebate Pool

Any and all allocation of the Pool to Participants will be under the sole discretion of Bitstamp, following the percentage of rebate of Program Participant fees up to the maximum rebate pool and all other applicable restrictions, consistent with the terms and purpose of this Agreement. Any amount of the Pool not allocated to Participant fees will revert to Ripple.
